

Cities nationwide celebrate 35th anniversary of gay pride

Contributed by Rose Petal

Sunday, 26 June 2005

Last Updated Monday, 21 November 2005

Cities nationwide celebrate 35th anniversary of gay pride: "The first Muncie, Ind., pride festival on Saturday drew hundreds of gays, lesbians and their families for food, music and fun. 'If you had told me 20 years ago that we would have a local pride event, I would have never believed it,' said Mike Sullivan, a member of a Unitarian Universalist congregation that supported the event."